

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

THE PAYNE AND GORE FAMILIES.

A SHORT ABSTRACT OF THE COURSE OF MY LIFE. T. P.

I was Borne in the parish of Fownhope¹ in the County of Hereford, my father being named W^m. Payne, and my grand-father Tobias Payne, whoe lived in the parish of Kingsciple in the sayd County, but was Borne at Barkley in the County of Glocestre where his ancestors had lived. In the yeare, 1640 I was put to schole to lerne English, and there continued untill 1645, when I spent some tyme to lerne the rudiments of lattyn and to Cyfre; after which tyme untill the yeare 1648, I remayned with my grandfather: but God Almighty at that tyme taking him out of this world, I returned to my father at fownhope, where I remayned untill the later end of the yeare 1649. But haveinge noe Employment was not satisfied with that course of life, soe desired him to place me in London; whereupon he sent me there with an entru'son soe to doe: but that faylinge I returned into the Cuntry agayne. However the next yeare A^o 1650, I went for London agayne and applied my selfe to my uncle Richard Bridges, with hopes to finde out some place, but could not doe it to our Content; however rather then be Idle, he lett me remayne with his uncle Alderman Adams, from whom I might depart at pleasure; soe betoke my selfe under him to recieve his rents, keepe his cash &c.

In the yeare 1651, the Alderman departed with his family for Elsenham in Essex where wee lived that sommer, and returned against the winter to London agayne. Haveinge remayned with the Alderman 8 yeares, viz. untill the end of the yeare 1653, (in which tyme I studied french and made a beginning in Spanish, as also bettered my self in wrighting and Arithmetique), when I understood from his sonn-in-law Mr. W^m. Christmas, that his factor, Mr. Richard Twyford, in Hamburg, had occasion for an aprentize. I thereupon acquainted Mr. Christmas that I was not mynded to remayne any longer with the Alderman, and had likewise a desire to see some forreigne parts. Soe with the help of my uncle Bridges, agreed with him, viz, to pay the sayd Mr. Twyford 200 ster^ls ready money, and to serve him 8 yeares, as alsoe that my uncle should stand security in a Bond of 1000^l for my faithful service. Soe in the beginnunge of January 1654, I toke leave of the Alderman &c. and sett forwards my Jorney for Hamburg; first for Gravesend, thence with the Paquett boat for Dunkerke, and soe through flanders, Brabant, Zeland, Holland, East and West friezland, dukedom of Oldenburg, Bishoprick of Bremen and Holstein; and soe through God's mercy, I arrived safe at Hamburg in the later end of the sayd month of January, in which I saw these Citytes and places following, viz, Dunkerke, Mardike, Ostend, Vern, Bridges, the fort S^t danasin, Sluce, flushing, Medilburg, Trevees, dort, Rotterdam, delft, Leyden, Amsterdam, Harlengin, Lewarden, Groningen, delfshill, Embden, Apen, Oldenburg, delmenhurst, Bremen and Stade.

Soe cominge to Hamburg, I aplyed my selfe to my Mr, and was presently bound to him (the 200^l being paid by his order to Mr. Robert Christmas, and the bond for my faithfull service entered into by my Uncle), whereupon I entered his service; and was in few dayes after sent by him out into the Cuntry to Hanover, for to lern the high dutch or German language: where, after I had remayned 4 months, and made an Indifrent progress, was (in regard of business) called home agayne; in which Jorney the only noated things I saw were the Prince of Hanover and Prince of Zell's Courts.

Returning to Hamburg, I betoke me to my Employment, and the ensuing Winter, my Mr. haveing occasion for England, departed thither, and left me alone in the business, which I managed till his returne about 3 months after, and then delivered him all things to his good Content. Not long after I was sent to Bremen to get in some old debts, and returned thence in 6 weekes, Continewinge in my business untill March, '56., at which tyme I rec'd the sorrowfull news of my father's decease; soe desired leave of my Mr. to returne into England for to settle something that was fallen into me by his decease; which I obteyned, and in the month of May departed ham^e in our Company's ship, Cap^m Edm: Green, Mr., and had a verry sudayne passage for London, from whence after a short stay I departed into the Cuntry, where dispatchinge my business, I returned againe for London: and toke my passage in Cap^m James Talbot, one of our Comp^y ships, for dordrecht in Holland, where by God's mercy wee arrived in few dayes.

From thence I went over land for Hamburg, viz. through Gelderland, Westphalia, &c, and saw in my Journey, Harlem, Nareden, Amrefort, Swoll, lyngen, Welshuisen, Bremefurt and horneburg, &c Soe returning to Ham^s thanked God for his Continewall preservation of me, and fell agayne to my business, in which I remayned untill the yeare 1657, when understanding from my friends that my presence in England was verrey needfull, as to the disposeinge of some lands fallen unto me by the death of my father, I obteyned agayne leave of my Mr. to returne thither, and in the month of Aug: sett forwarde by land for Holland; in which passage, besides what formerly mentioned, I saw these following places. doemin (?) Bolsworth, Workum, Enkusen (where I had the honor to sup with 2 of the states gen^l viz myn h^r Marode and myn h^r de Vett) and Armuyen. Att Flushing, with some other passengers, I hyered a small vessel, and in 24 howres wee arrived through God's mercy in safety at Gravesend; and from thence to London, where I found the Comp^t shipp, Capt. Edm: Green in a readinesse to depart for Hamburg.

Soe after 14 dayes stay in the Citty I departed into the Cuntry and remayned there 3 weekes, in which tyme I effected my business, and returned agayne for London, where I understood that Capt. Green lay wind-bound in Guinborough road. Soe I presently departed London in a payre of oares, and after much danger came aboard of him there, and in a day or two after had a fayr wind, which brought us in a short tyme to Ham^s.

Cominge thither I fell agayne to my business, in which I remayned untill the year 1658, and then in February was sent out by my Mr. to gett in some debts in the Cuntry, in which Journey I passed through the dominions of the dukes of Brunswig and Luneburg, as alsoe of the Elector of Brandenburg and Bishop of Collen; and saw (besides what formerly mentioned) the following places: Brounswig, Luneburg, Hil-disheim, Bocklam, Saltsdetford, and Lambspringe, a monastery of English Benedictines where I was moast civilly Entertayned for the space of 2 or 3 dayes, by the Lord Abbote Placidius Gascon, and the rest. Soe returninge to Hamb^s fell agayne to my business. In the month of November in this yeare 1658 my master's business callinge him agayn for England, he departed thither and lefte me the management of his affayres here, which I performed to his Content untill his returne, which was in the month of March 1659. In the month of July followinge I was agayne sent into the Cuntry to gather in moneys, and saw (besides what formerly mentioned) Mynd, Lemgo, Flote, Neyenburg, Veerden, Veerden Sconce, Jeance and Neystatt. Soe returning to Hamb^s in November afterwards, my Mr. presently departed for England, and left me agayne alone in the business which I managed untill his returne, which was in May following, A^o 1660, and then dd. him all things to his Content. In the month of January 1662 my Mr. went agayne for England and left me the last tyme in his business: about the later end of March he returned agayne. Soe my tyme being expired, I delivered him all things to his Content, and with satisfaction on boath sides departed his service, receivinge of him the Bond of 1000^l which my uncle had entered into for my fidelity, which I returned for London cancelled, with due acknowledgments for his love.

Hereuppon I beginne the management of my owne affaires and the servinge of some friends in Comission, in which employment I continued untill the yeare 1664, and then uppon the 20th of Aprill I left Hamburg, and departed by land for England; in which Journey I saw besides what formerly mentioned, these Citties and places following, viz Hinlopen, Molguern, Standen, Horn, Edam, Mopiskedam, Ter-tolen, Antwerpen, Brussells, Alst, Gends, Ostend, the miraculous church of our Lady of Laken by Brussells, the Prince of Orange's house of Risewick and in the Bush by the Hague Wininbergen, Burburg, Greneling and Callis, from whence I toke my passage in the pakquett boate for dover, and the 24th of May arrived, God be thanked, in safety at London. I saw alsoe in this Journey (which are omitted above) Mauritius fort, Nassaw fort, Salter fort, Klunder fort, Hogerwerft fort, the small city of Sandfliet, Frederick Henry fort, Hulst, Bergen vp some, Lillo fort, gentz fort, Lieskineo hock fort, all belonging to the hollanders upon the frontiers of Brabant; as also the Phillip fort, the Mary fort, the perle fort, S^t John's fort, Issabella fort, belonginge to the Spaniards by Antwerp, together with the Nassaw and Orange forts there belonging to the States.

Arrivinge at London as aforesad, I applied my selfe to some members of the royall Comp^y whoe had Invited me over to undertake an Imployment in their service, which after 2 or 3 treaties were concluded uppon, viz to goe first to Barbados, and there to reside in Comission with Mr. Peter Collison and Mr Thomas Modyford untill Mr. Reid arrived there, and then to goe downe unto Jamaica in Comission with S^r Tho. Modyford &c. Soe uppon the p^m. Sept^r. 1664, I dep'ted from London for Gravesend where I lay till the 5 ditto and then Embarqued my selfe uppon the Concord, Capt. James Strutt, Mr. for the Barbados lying then in the Hope, 14 gunnes, 250 tunne, 22 seamen and about 65 passenger. The 6 ditto in the name of God we weighed anchor thence.

[We omit the log of the voyage, it being of no interest. On Sept. 14 they lost sight of England, and arrived at Barbados Oct. 16.]

The 16th in the morninge wee were hard by the land and about 8 a Clock cast anchor in Carlisle Bay, and soe went on shoar at the Indian Bridge or St Michael's towne, Givinge God thanks for our prosperous passage, and his mercifull preservation of us. Our voyage from the downes was 32 dayes, in which tyme wee sayled by computation, comparing the logg and observations, about 4000 miles.

Some tyme after I had resided in Barbados, I had a Ballance and Inventory of the royall Company's concernes delivered unto me, which I posted into a new payer of Bookes and sent them copies of all unto my deliveringe over the sayd Bookes unto Mr Thomas Colleton² and Mr. John Reid, which was in the month of December 1665, and then receivinge a l^{re} from the Comp^a with ord^r for my goeing downe to Jamaica, I Embarc'd the first opertunity; which was the Oporto March^t, Capt. James Alford comand^r, designed thether with 500 negroes. In which shipp I Embarqued my selfe the 21 Xbre, being thursday.

[We omit the log of this voyage also.]

January 1665-6. Fryday the 5th about 3 a clock in the afternoone, we came to an anchor in the Harbour of Port Royall; for which God be prayesd. Our Voyage was 16 dayes and very troublesome, in regard wee were pestored with soe many negroes, and feared an insurrection. The next day I wayted upon his Excellency, S^r Thomas Modyford,³ Governor at St Jago de la Vega, and soe fell to assistinge in the Company's business; wherein I continued untill the begininge of October 1666, at which tyme the Comp^a ordered S^r Thomas (in regard the Contract with the Spanyards went not forward) to reduce the factory to two p'sons only; soe he was pleased to make choyce of Mr Hendee Molesworth and my selfe, outinge Mr Lewis and Mr. Reid. But presently after it pleased God to visit me with Sickness, and the advise of my D^r was, that in case I removed not to an other clymate, might run a great risics of death or a tedious sickness.

Soe I petitioned S^r Thomas that he would discharge me of the Company's service, which he accordingly did under his hand; whereupon I delivered up and cleared my accounts, and the 12th September sett sayle from Jamaica in the Friendship Catch, burthen 25 tonne, Tho: Jenner Comander, bound for New England.

[We omit the log of this voyage also; the vessel had many passengers, and was poorly supplied with provisions, but arrived safely October 22.]

² Mr. Thomas Colleton, according to BURKE, was son of Sir John C., the first baronet of the name, a title still existing. Sir John was a large proprietor of lands in America, and three of his sons married in Barbadoes.

¹⁵ From the Council Records, as printed in my Massachusetts Civil List, p. 80, I can fill out a record of John Payne's appointment. July 14, 1749, John was appointed Register of Probate "in the absence of Andrew Belcher from the Province." Sept. 20, 1754, appointed for three months or untill the return of John Shirley, and again in the next January, for two months. March 28, 1755, he and John Cotton were appointed joint Registers, which he held doubtless till his death, as William Cooper was appointed with Cotton, Dec. 19, 1755. His will (Suff. Wills, iv. 285, new paging) was proved 23 Nov. 1759, dated 25 Mch. 1752, and, though not perfect through informality, was allowed for personal property. He gave every thing to his mother Margaret Payne, and therefore was probably never married.

The following obituary is from the "Boston Evening Post" for Monday, Nov. 19, 1759: "Last Saturday Morning died here after a short and violent illness, Mr. John Payne, a Gentleman of known Abilities in the several Offices he sustained, and remarkable for his unsullied Integrity. Edward, the youngest son, born the 4th Feb. 1721-2, lived as an apprentice with Mr. Benjamin Colman, Merchant in Boston, from April 1736 to May 1743. In Aug^r following opened a Store on the Long Wharfe at the desire of Brother John Phillips, who proposed to put a stock into my hands to Trade with on our joint accounts; but his stock being chiefly imploy'd in a Distilhouse with Bro^r. Colman, he could not furnish me with the stock I expected.

In Nov^r. 1745, I engag'd in the distilling Business with Bro^r. Colman, who was then separated from Mr. Phillips; but finding our stock was not sufficient to carry on the Business to advantage, and that Bro^r. Colman did not manage the distilling as I expected, I determined to quit that Business, and proceed on a voyage to Gibraltar. In April 1746, I purchas'd a Vessel in company with Mr. John Mascarene and others, which we loaded with Rum, Fish, Flour &c. and in June I sail'd for Gibraltar, where I arrived the 24th July, and soon after dispatch'd the Vessel back to Boston, with a Cargo of Prize goods, Wine and Fruit; but remain'd there myself to dispose of the Cargo, and purchase another against her return. This vessel called the ———, Davenport Walker, master, on her return to Gibraltar with another Cargo, had the misfortune to be taken as she enter'd the Straights. I then purchas'd a Brig^e. called the Zant, put Capt. Philip Payne in Master, took some prize goods, and proceeded in her to Villa Nova in Portugal, where I loaded her with salt and some fruit, and return'd to Boston, where I arriv'd safe, 22^d April 1747.

In May, 1748, Mr Peter Chardon put 1000£ stg. into my hands to be employ'd in the English Trade, for which I was to have $\frac{1}{3}$ ^d. the Profit in said Stock, and to have liberty to do my own business; but money growing scarce, and that Trade being dull, I did not continue long in it, and in Feb. 1752, I finished that concern and parted amicably.

In March 1752, I entered into copartnership with Mr. James Perkins of Boston, and engag'd to settle at Gloucester, and to carry on a Trade there in the Fishery on our joint account: he put in a stock of 1000£ stg., and I to put in 500£ stg. The 22^d of this month I re-mov'd there, built a store and a number of fishing Vessels, and carried on that business; also a foreign Trade in which I succeeded beyond my expectation, built a Wharff and Fish flakes. In this business I continued to mutual satisfaction untill July 1761, when we closed our Copartnership and divided the Stock to the satisfaction of both Parties, and on the 1st Oct. 1761, I returned to Boston after 9 years' residence at Gloucester, which I esteem as the pleasantest part of my life, being advantageously employ'd in business, and enjoying a sett of agreeable acquaintance.

During my abode at Gloucester I was married to Miss Rebecca Amory of Boston (daughter of Thomas and Rebecca Amory,* born the 25th June, O. S. 1725, by whom I had 3 children born in Gloucester, viz —

Mary	} twins, born Dec. 1, 1757
Sarah
Rebecca

The last five years I lived at Gloucester we were at Warr with France, during which I had 2 vessels taken in Europe, on which I had no Insurance; and two in the W. Indies that were partly insured. In the course of the Warr, Louisburg was taken a second time, Quebec and all Canada surrender'd to the English the 8 Sept. 1760.

“Boston Feb. 1799. The reasons my father did not continue the account of his family, I am unable to give, but as he did not, I shall; and intend to give an account of my relations on my mother's side. Will. Payne.”

On 1 Oct. 1761, my father removed from Cape Ann to Boston, to a House in State st. (now so called) in which I was born on 18th of July, 1762. On 11th Oct. 1765, he had another son, who was named Edward, and who died on 31 Dec^r the same year.

My father continued to live in this House all the time untill his death, except the time of the Seige, when, being in favor of the Revolution, he left the town and lived at Medford and at Waltham. On 5th March 1770 he was wounded in the arm by the British soldiers. Until the beginning of the Revolution he was concerned in the European trade and made money. On his return to town after the Seige he opened an Insurance Office, and had most of the business of the town. He continued in this business untill his Death, which was on the 5th March 1788, aged 67.

This ended the Life of a man of good sound sence, one who was esteemed and beloved by all that knew him, and whose reputation as an honest man was unsullied. He always had a good oppinion of the publick securities of the country, and invested all the money he could get, after paying the expences of his family, in them. He left $80,000 Doll^r in publick paper, four Houses worth ———; the one in State St, he gave to me on the death of my mother, and 13,000 Doll^r in securities, which I then had.

On 11th Nov. 1783, my sister Rebecca was married to Christopher Gore, an attorney-at-law, of whom it is probable, I shall give a further acc^t when I give a history of my own life.

At the time of my father's death, my Mother was very unwell, and had been for 2 or 3 years; her disorder came on by a Malincolly, and deprived her of her reason, to which she was never perfectly restored. She died on 14th Feb. 1799, nearly eleven years after the death of my father. She was between 73 and 74 years of age. She was a woman of the most amiable disposition, beloved by every one that knew her.

My mother had three brothers and one sister:¹⁶

Thomas Amory, who married Elizabeth Coffin and had 9 children, viz
Thomas C. Amory, Rebecca Elizabeth, Nancy, Jonathan, John, Mary
Nathaniel and William

Jonathan, married Abigail Taylor, and had not any children.

Mary, married Timothy Newell: they had not any children

John, married Katherine Greene, by whom he had ten children, viz., John, Rufus Greene, Thomas, Jonathan, William, Francis, Katherine, Rebecca, Mary and Nancy.

I, William Payne, was an apprentice to William Foster, after which my father set me up and gave me 3333 D^r 33^{cts} which I put into the Dry Goods line, but soon after, the Peace between Great Britain and America was concluded: I did not make any profit in that business.

¹⁶ This account of the Amory family agrees with the one printed in the HISTORICAL AND GENEALOGICAL REGISTER, x. 62-3.

Afterwards my Father took me into partnership with him in the Insurance Office, and I kept a store on the Long Wharfe. After his death, T. C. Amory was a partner with me for two years in the Commission Line, 1788 and 1789: we lived and parted good friends and continue so. After this I bought and sold the Publick Securities of the country, and like a simpleton gave up the Insurance office, and was engaged in the purchase of five millions of Georgia Land, which brought upon me a vexatious Law suit, in which a Judgment of 220,000 was given against me. After I had settled that Judgment, (which I did in full), I sailed in the Minerva, Nov. 1799, for London, to make a Visit to my brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gore: he was then a Commissioner from this Country, under the 6th article of the British Treaty. I returned by via New York and arrived there Oct. 19, 1800. Mr and Mrs Gore arrived from England 12 April 1804. During their absence I had the care of his business and farm at Waltham, on which I raised and planted Trees, and, formed most of the present walks. The House he built there was burnt down on 19th March, 1799, while I lived there.

Mr Gore and myself have always lived on the most friendly and intimate terms of friendship. I could not add to his fame in anything that I could say, nor would it be possible for me to express the pleasure and satisfaction, as well as information, that I have derived from his society.¹⁷ June 26th. 1803 I was married to Mrs. Lucy Dobell, who was the daughter of Ellis¹⁸ and Sarah Gray. She was born July 18, 1776, and married to Dr. Will. John Benger Dobell,¹⁹ April 26,

¹⁹ Of Dr. Dobell's antecedents I can learn little. The Boston journals recorded his death at Philadelphia in October, 1797, aged 30, calling him a celebrated physician. Following this clue by the kindness of a correspondent, I learn that Dr. Dobell is commemorated in a "Short History of the Yellow Fever that broke out in the City of Philadelphia in July, 1797," by Richard Folwell. It seems that Dr. Dobell volunteered his services in behalf of the poor during this epidemic, and fell a victim to his philanthropy. The account states that Dr. Dobell "was of independent circumstances, had been married but a few months before, and could have no temptation to the office which he undertook, but what arose from pure benevolence."

1797, who died in Oct. following; by whom she had one child, viz: Emmeline Benger Dobell, who was born 29 Mch. 1798.

Mrs Payne and myself passed the winter of 1803 at Washington, and on our way home, on the 8 April 1804, at New York was delivered, by the birth of two boys, which are christened Edward William and William Edward. May 8, 1807, Mrs. Payne had two other boys; they were called Chris^r Gore, and Ellis Gray. On 25 Sept 1807, Ellis Gray died; and on 5 Oct 1807, Chris^r Gore died.

March 13, 1809, Mrs. Payne died. Mrs Payne's father was the son of Rev. Ellis Gray, and her mother the daughter of Benj. Dolbear.

My brother, Chris^r Gore, was Governor of Massachusetts from June 1809 to June 1810.

On Saturday evening Mch 27, 1813, [I] was married to Catherine Hallett, by the Rev^d. Mr. Miller, at New York. She was daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth Hallett; her mother's maiden name was Hazard.

Mrs Payne was born at New York on 22^d Feb. 1768. She had not any brothers; her eldest sisters were twins, Lydia and Elizabeth. Lydia married Mr. Horlitz, a German; Elizabeth, Mr. Gault; she is now living. Ann, the third daughter married Mr John Delafield. Mrs Payne was 4th. daughter. Sarah was the 5th. and is not yet married; and Maria, who married Col. Tallmadge, was 6th.

July 29, 1816, Emeline B. Dobell married to F. Carnes.

Aug. 17, 1821, she died and left three children.

[Here ends the line of autobiographies, though various interesting notes remain to be copied here. William Payne left three sisters and two sons; of these William E. survived the others and made a record as following:—]

"July 21, 1827, William Payne died after an illness of 4 days, leaving a wife, and Edward W. and W^m. E. Payne, twins.

"March 7, 1832. Edward W. Payne died of consumption after an illness of 5 months, borne without a complaint.

"January 22^d 1833. Sarah Payne died, of an inflammation of the lungs. Sick early in life, and never robust, she was always cheerful, and ever attentive to the comfort and contributing to the pleasures of those about her.

"Rebecca Gore died April 14, 1834. With a mind above ordinary women, was united a kindness of heart and a disinterestedness, which showed itself in deeds and not in words. Without children she was a mother to those of two families. Fond of retirement and domestic quiet, she loved to have her friends about her. Devoted to the care of a sick husband, she still kept up her intercourse with society and fulfilled her duties to it. An active member of society, none could live within the circle in which she moved without being affected by her influence.

"Mary Payne died Nov. 6, 1834. Always an invalid, she yet always enjoyed life, and from her good temper and ladylike deportment was ever a pleasant and important member of the family circle. She and Sarah were never separated from each other during the life of the latter. They had everything in common, and had always a competence. They lived much in society and did their share in the promotion of sociability and good feeling. In early life they were called to administer to the comfort of a mother who for many years was a source of care, anxiety and attention. They never remitted their attendance. In after life when their brother's estate became insolvent from the mismanagement of several manufacturing establishments in which he had invested the greater part of his property, they submitted to a loss of $50,000 without a murmur." He adds that they continued to assist their brother's widow, &c.

"They were survived by an old and faithful servant, aged 86, and who had lived with them from the time she was sixteen. Her name was Thankful Leeds."

The last survivor of the family in the male line, William Edward Payne, left no autobiography; but instead his intimate friend and executor, the late Edward Blake, wrote in this volume a full record of Payne's life. Much of this tribute relates to personal matters of no interest, except to those connected with him by ties of kindred. We therefore present an abstract of this memoir in place of a copy of it.

William Edward Payne was born 8 April, 1804, and was baptized 25 Nov. following by Rev. Dr. Freeman; his half-sister, Emmeline B. Dobell, being baptized at the same time. He was a pupil at the Phillips Academy, Exeter. He entered Harvard College in 1820, and was graduated in 1824. Then, in company with his classmate and biographer, Blake, he studied at the Law School at Northampton, Mass.; in 1826 they became students in the office of Lemuel Shaw and Sidney Bartlett of Boston. In 1827 both were admitted to the bar.

Mr. Payne did not practise law to any extent, his health having been delicate for years; and he was mainly occupied in settling his father's estate. His own property, derived from his grandmother, was seriously diminished by investments in manufacturing corporations.

In 1834, on the death of his aunts, Mrs. Gore and Miss Mary Payne, he succeeded to a large estate, and he promptly availed of it, to pay all the creditors of his father's estate in full with interest, expending in this honorable manner over $25,000.

The state of his health continuing unfavorable, his malady being some unusual form of lung disease, Mr. Payne sailed for Europe Dec. 25, 1834. He spent the next three years and a half abroad in search of health, but without success; and died at Paris, July 5, 1838. His remains were deposited at Père la Chaise in a tomb bearing the following inscription:—

William Edward
Payne,
de Boston, Etats Unis,
agé de 34 ans.
Décédé à Paris,
5 Juillet, 1838.

Mr. Blake adds as to his character, "To intellectual powers of a high order he united a generosity and kindness of disposition which he possessed to a remarkable degree. Disinterestedness was a prominent trait of his character. He was very fond of doing good to others." "He was tried in adversity and prosperity," and "alike in both he never lost sight of the claims of others. He was as free from selfishness as the lot of humanity would permit." "He had a very strong sense of religion, and an entire conviction and faith in a future state, to which he looked forward with strong hopes."

The only near relatives of Mr. William E. Payne were the descendants of his half-sister, Miss Dobell.

As already noted, Emmeline B. Dobell married Francis Carnes of Boston, July 29, 1816. Their children were
